Hans Lang, Hattenheimer Schützenhaus Riesling trocken 2013 Rheingau

Score 16.5/20

Silvery lemon colour. Practically bounds out the glass with a surprisingly deep-timbred rich nose - almost like fudge! Crystallised lemon. Quite a powerhouse. So much substance here! Pineapple and honey, spun with herbs and a tinge of racy bitterness. Fine pointed acidity giving length and grace to what might otherwise be a slightly weighty wine. (TC)

Producer	Hans Lang
Vintage	2013
Appellation	Rheingau
Region	Rheingau
Country	Germany
Score	16.5
Colour	White
Grape Variety	Riesling
Alcohol	12.5%
When to drink	2014 - 2015
Published	1 Dec 2014
Date tasted	4 Dec 2014

Reviewer	Tamlyn Currin

See prices and stockists

This wine was featured in the following tasting article

German and Austrian assortmentSee Sorting through the assortments for a guide to the collections of tasting notes already published and those yet to come.This little collection of…1 Dec 2014 Team JR